ဝိသုဒ္ဓိသုတ္တန်

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink stains, on the right side of the page. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the use of words like "procurator" and "procuratoris" in some of the legible fragments.

လောကဗုဒ္ဓလောက

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. The document appears to be a letter or a formal record, given the structured layout and the use of capital letters for emphasis. The text is written in a single column, with some lines starting with a large, ornate initial. The paper shows signs of wear, including two prominent dark circular holes, possibly from binding or damage. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical artifact.
